

PERFORMANCE AWARDS

It's that time of year again! In preparation for Reunion in September, we need your nominations for the following categories within your business:

Office Professional Of The Year

This award is presented by each company to the customer service representative or office professional who is nominated, in writing, by their franchise owner and selected by the home office staff, based on their performance during the award year. This person must have a history of setting an example for other associates with their work habits, the customers' satisfaction and in general is a model office professional that every franchisee seeks.

Service Professional Of The Year

This award is presented by each company to the service professional who is nominated, in writing, by their franchise owner and selected by the home office staff based on their performance during the award year. The service professional must have a history of consistent high sales and add-on percent. They also must demonstrate a high degree of technical expertise and customer satisfaction.

Sales Professional Of The Year

This award is presented by each company to the sales professional who has been nominated by their franchise owner, based on factors such as: closure ratio to leads, professionalism, interaction with customers, attention to detail, follow-up "after" the sale and the volume of sales contributed to the business.

Woman Of The Year

This award is presented to the women who have had the greatest contribution to the success of their franchise. The recipient is nominated, in writing, by the franchise owner and is then selected by the home office staff. This award is to recognize the continuing efforts that strengthen and support the success of the franchise.

Please email your nominations to Christy Voss no later than May 15th.
